

THE ANTARCTICAN SOCIETY

Notice to Members

The Antarctic Society is pleased to announce that the second meeting of the 1964-65 season will take place on the evening of 12 November at 8 p.m. in the lecture hall of the National Academy of Sciences, 2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W. Dr. Meredith F. Burrill, Executive Secretary of the Board on Geographic Names, will speak on "Antarctic Geographic Names." The meeting is open to the public without charge. Members are invited to bring guests and to inform persons who may be interested in the Antarctic and in the topic of the evening. Following the talk, refreshments will be served in the Great Hall of the National Academy.

The following meeting will be International Night, which will be presented by the United Kingdom. The speaker will be Captain Robert H. Graham, RN, MVO, who will talk on his two years as commanding officer of HMS Protector in Antarctic waters. The meeting will be held about mid-January, at an exact date to be determined later.

This notice calls to the attention of members that annual dues of $2.00 are now in order. To facilitate the work of the Treasurer-Membership Secretary, it will be greatly appreciated if checks are made payable and are promptly sent to:

Mr. Fred G. Alberts
Office of Geography
Department of the Interior
Washington, D. C. 20240

The mailing of your check provides an excellent opportunity to include a notice of a change-of-address, if such has taken place in the past year.

HENRY M. DATER
Secretary-Historian
