

THE ANTARCTICAN SOCIETY

WASHINGTON, D. C.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of The Antarctican Society will be held on 12 May 1966 at 8 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of the National Academy of Sciences, 2101 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. The principal business will be the election of officers for the coming year and the choice of four persons to serve three-year terms as Directors. Nominations will be invited from the floor, and members are urged to bring other matters of general concern to the attention of the meeting! Reports on activities of the past year will also be presented.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Rear Admiral Fred E. Bakutis, USN, Commander U.S. Naval Support Force, Antarctica, will give a brief talk on the operational highlights of Operation DEEP FREEZE 66, and Dr. Thomas O. Jones, Director, Environmental Sciences Division, National Science Foundation, will review the scientific accomplishments of the year. Following the talks, refreshments will be served in the Great Hall of the Academy.

Members are urged to reserve 4 June 1966 for the Annual Garden Party which, through the courtesy of the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, will again be held at the historic Belmont Estate in Elkridge, Maryland. Further details will be forwarded as soon as available.

The response of members in purchasing the scarves especially designed for The Antarctican Society by Emilio Pucci has been gratifying. A number, however, remain, and members are urged to make their purchases while there is still a choice of several color combinations. The scarves will be on display at the meeting*
